

2015 Statistics

The below statistics include information from the calls, emails, and webforms received by the National Human Trafficking Resource Center hotline (available at traffickingresourcecenter.org/statistics); from texts received by Polaris's BeFree Textline; and from communications referencing overseas cases. Through these communications, Polaris has learned of, responded to, and analyzed thousands of cases of human trafficking. The data are not intended to represent the full scope of human trafficking, but to help identify trends. Statistics on this page are from Jan. 1, 2015 to Dec. 31, 2015.

FINDING HELP AROUND THE WORLD

Nadine,* a young woman from Southern Africa, traveled to the Middle East for a promising new housekeeping job. But when Nadine arrived, she quickly realized that it wasn't what she had hoped for. Her employers forced her to work extremely long hours with no pay. After seeing a TV program advertising the NHTRC, she decided to reach out for help.

The NHTRC and Polaris' Global team were ready to respond. Through the help of international organizations and key contacts from the Global Modern Slavery Directory, we were able to intervene and help Nadine get home, and connect her with support services in her home country. Nadine has reached out to say that she is extremely grateful for our work—and hopeful about the future.

*To protect the identities of those we serve, Polaris has changed the name of the survivor in this story.
