

Human trafficking occurs when criminals control or exploit vulnerable people for profit. Recognize the signs.

SEX TRAFFICKING

- Pays for room in cash or with pre paid card
- Hourly stay or extended stay with few possessions
- Requests room overlooking parking lot
- Excessive foot traffic in/out of hotel room
- Frequently requests new linens, towels, and restocking of fridge
- Exhibits fearful, anxious, or submissive behavior
- Requests info on local sex industry

SEX OR LABOR TRAFFICKING

- No control of money, cell phone, or ID
- Restricted or controlled communications
- No knowledge of current or past whereabouts
- Signs of poor hygiene, malnourishment, or fatigue
- No freedom of movement, constantly monitored
- Presence of excessive drugs, alcohol, sex paraphernalia

LABOR TRAFFICKING

- Prevented from taking adequate breaks
- Doing different work than was contracted
- Living and working on-site
- Forced to meet daily quotas
- Exorbitant fees deducted from paychecks
- Not paid directly or forced to turn over wages
- Number of guests in a hotel room exceeds its occupancy

You can help.

Call the National Human Trafficking Resource Center hotline at 1-888-373-7888, or send a text to BeFree (233733).

For international support, call +001-202-745-0190 or text 202-657-4006. International rates may apply.

Confidential. 24/7.